

ARTICULATELY

Meaning: In a clear and effective manner, especially in expressing thoughts or ideas.

1. She expressed her ideas articulately, making it easy for everyone to understand.
2. During the debate, he articulated his points articulately, impressing both the judges and the audience.
3. The professor delivered the lecture articulately, captivating the students' attention from start to finish.
4. It's important to communicate articulately in a professional setting to avoid misunderstandings.
5. She was able to articulately summarize the complex topic in just a few sentences.
6. He could articulate his thoughts articulately even under pressure, showcasing his poise.
7. Their ability to speak articulately about their experiences made their presentation memorable.
8. To persuade others, one must often express their views articulately and with conviction.
9. The author's arguments were laid out articulately, making the book both engaging and enlightening.
10. In her speech, she articulated her vision for the future articulately, inspiring everyone present.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/articulately>