ARTIFACT

Meaning: An artifact is an object made or used by humans, typically of historical or cultural interest, that provides insight into past societies or practices.

1. The archaeologists uncovered an ancient artifact that shed light on the civilization's rituals.
2. Each artifact in the museum tells a unique story about its origin and significance.
3. During the excavation, they found a ceramic artifact that was over a thousand years old.
4. The artifact was carefully restored to preserve its historical value for future generations.
5. Historians debated the purpose of the artifact, speculating on its use in daily life.
6. She was thrilled to discover an artifact from her family's past hidden in the attic.
7. The exhibit featured a rare artifact that had never been displayed publicly before.
8. Researchers used advanced technology to analyze the chemical composition of the artifact.
9. Visitors to the site were fascinated by the intricate details of the ancient artifact.
10. The artifact served as a crucial piece of evidence in understanding the region's history.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/artifact