

ARTIFICIALLY

Meaning: ARTIFICIALLY: In a manner that is not natural or genuine, often created or improved by human intervention.

1. The flowers in the display were artificially enhanced to look more vibrant.
2. He spoke in an artificially cheerful tone, masking his true feelings.
3. Many athletes have been caught using artificially created substances to enhance their performance.
4. The landscape was artificially altered to create a more picturesque view.
5. She preferred the taste of naturally grown vegetables over those that were artificially flavored.
6. The company produced an artificially intelligent system capable of learning from its environment.
7. The lighting in the room was artificially bright, making it hard to relax.
8. They created an artificially constructed lake to attract more tourists to the area.
9. The artist used artificially generated imagery to explore themes of reality and perception.
10. His smile seemed artificially wide, hinting at his discomfort with the situation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/artificially>