

ARTIFICIALNESS

Meaning: Artificialness refers to the quality of being made or produced by human beings rather than occurring naturally, often implying a lack of authenticity or naturalness.

1. The artificialness of the product became evident when compared to its natural counterpart.
2. While the artificialness of the decor was charming, it lacked the warmth of authenticity.
3. Critics often debate the artificialness of emotions portrayed in reality television.
4. Her smile had an artificialness that made me question her sincerity.
5. The artificialness of the food's flavor was a major turn-off for many diners.
6. He was skilled at masking the artificialness of his performance with genuine passion.
7. The artificialness of the environment clashed with the natural landscape surrounding it.
8. Despite its artificialness, the sculpture managed to evoke deep feelings in the viewers.
9. In a world increasingly filled with artificialness, authenticity is a rare gem.
10. The film's artificialness was both a stylistic choice and a commentary on modern life.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/artificialness>