

As a result

Meaning: Used to indicate the outcome or consequence of an action or situation.

1. She studied hard for the exam; as a result, she received a high score.
2. The company improved its customer service, and as a result, sales increased significantly.
3. He forgot to set his alarm, and as a result, he was late for work.
4. The weather was severe, and as a result, the event was postponed.
5. She practiced every day, and as a result, her skills improved dramatically.
6. They invested in renewable energy, and as a result, their costs went down.
7. The team worked overtime, and as a result, they finished the project ahead of schedule.
8. He took a different route to avoid traffic, and as a result, he arrived on time.
9. The community came together to clean the park, and as a result, it looks much nicer now.
10. She followed the recipe closely, and as a result, the dish turned out delicious.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/as+a+result>