

As implied by

Meaning: The phrase 'as implied by' indicates that something is suggested or inferred rather than explicitly stated.

1. The results of the study, as implied by the data, suggest a significant correlation between exercise and mental health.
2. As implied by her tone, she was not pleased with the decision made by the committee.
3. The contract, as implied by its terms, requires both parties to fulfill their obligations by the deadline.
4. As implied by his previous comments, he was not in favor of the proposed changes to the policy.
5. The teacher's feedback, as implied by her grading, highlighted areas where improvement was needed.
6. As implied by the title of the book, the story revolves around themes of loss and redemption.
7. The marketing campaign, as implied by its slogan, aims to appeal to eco-conscious consumers.
8. As implied by the historical context, the author's perspective was shaped by the events of that era.
9. The warning signs, as implied by the experts, indicate a potential risk of flooding in the area.
10. As implied by the survey results, the majority of customers prefer online shopping over in-store experiences.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/as+implied+by>