

ASHEN

Meaning: Ashen refers to a pale gray color, often indicating sickness, fear, or the presence of ash, as seen in a person's complexion or the sky.

1. Her face turned ashen when she heard the shocking news.
2. The sky above was ashen, signaling the approach of a storm.
3. After the fire, the landscape was left ashen and barren.
4. He walked into the room with an ashen complexion, clearly shaken.
5. The old photograph had faded to an ashen hue over the years.
6. As the sun set, the ashen clouds glowed faintly in the twilight.
7. The survivors emerged from the wreckage with ashen faces, traumatized by the event.
8. The artist used ashen tones to convey a sense of despair in the painting.
9. She clutched the ashen remains of the letter, tears streaming down her face.
10. In the aftermath of the volcanic eruption, everything was coated in a layer of ashen dust.
11. The ashen sky foretold an impending storm.
12. After the fire, the village lay in ashen ruins.
13. Her face turned ashen with shock upon hearing the news.
14. The old photograph was faded and ashen, preserving memories of a distant past.
15. He stared at the ashen remains of what used to be his home.
16. The ashen landscape was a stark reminder of the devastation left behind.
17. With ashen cheeks, she struggled to conceal her fear.
18. The ashen color of the walls gave the room a cold, lifeless feel.
19. His ashen complexion suggested he had been unwell for some time.
20. The ashen embers of the campfire crackled softly in the night.
21. Her face turned ashen as she received the devastating news.
22. The sky was ashen, casting a gloomy shadow over the desolate landscape.

23. He walked into the room with an ashen complexion, clearly shaken by the event.
24. The ashen ruins of the once-vibrant village stood as a testament to the disaster.
25. After days without food or water, he looked ashen and weak.
26. She let out a gasp, her ashen features betraying her shock.
27. The ashen remnants of the fire smoldered quietly in the night.
28. His voice was ashen and hollow, devoid of any emotion.
29. The ashen clouds overhead hinted at an impending storm.
30. As the news spread, a wave of ashen faces filled the crowd with disbelief.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ashen>