

ASPECTANT

Meaning: Aspectant: characterized by a watchful or attentive demeanor, often reflecting curiosity or anticipation.

1. The aspectant gaze of the audience was palpable as the performer took the stage.
2. In her aspectant demeanor, she conveyed a mix of curiosity and anticipation.
3. The aspectant nature of the children suggested they were eager to learn about the world around them.
4. As the meeting progressed, the aspectant looks exchanged between team members indicated growing tension.
5. His aspectant attitude during the presentation suggested he was deeply engaged with the material.
6. The aspectant expressions of the pets in the shelter reflected their hope for a new home.
7. With an aspectant glance, she invited him to share his thoughts on the matter.
8. The aspectant nature of the moment made it clear that everyone was waiting for a decisive answer.
9. As the sun set, the aspectant beauty of the landscape left the hikers in awe.
10. Her aspectant smile hinted at the joy she felt in sharing the news with her friends.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/aspectant>