

ASPERATING

Meaning: ASPERATING: causing annoyance or irritation; frustrating.

1. The sound of the train was asperating, drowning out all other noises.
2. Her constant questioning was asperating to the point of distraction.
3. He found the repetitive nature of the task asperating after several hours.
4. The loud music at the party became increasingly asperating as the night wore on.
5. She tried to focus, but the asperating chatter in the café made it difficult.
6. His asperating habit of interrupting others made conversations challenging.
7. The frequent delays in the project were asperating for the entire team.
8. Asperating as it was, she remained patient and waited for her turn to speak.
9. The teacher's asperating remarks about the homework assignment caused confusion among students.
10. The relentless buzzing of the flies was truly asperating during the picnic.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/asperating>