

ASPERSION

Meaning: Aspersion: a derogatory remark or criticism that attacks someone's character or reputation.

1. The politician faced public backlash after casting aspersions on his opponent's character.
2. She was hurt by the aspersions her colleagues made about her work ethic.
3. Despite the aspersions thrown at him, he remained focused on his goals.
4. The article was filled with aspersions that lacked any factual basis.
5. It is unwise to cast aspersions without having solid evidence to back your claims.
6. His comments were seen as an aspersion on the entire team's efforts.
7. The aspersions made during the debate only served to escalate tensions.
8. Casting aspersions can damage reputations and create unnecessary conflict.
9. She felt the aspersions were a personal attack rather than constructive criticism.
10. In a moment of frustration, he let slip an aspersion that surprised everyone in the room.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/aspersion>