

ASS

Meaning: Ass: a term referring to a domesticated donkey or, informally, the buttocks.

1. She laughed when she saw the donkey, calling it the cutest ass she had ever seen.
2. After a long hike, I could feel the strain on my legs and my ass.
3. He made a joke about how he fell on his ass during the race.
4. The artist sculpted a beautiful figure of a horse and its ass, capturing its strength.
5. In the meeting, he acted like a complete ass, refusing to listen to anyone's ideas.
6. She was quick to remind him that being an ass wouldn't win him any friends.
7. The children giggled as the farmer showed them how to feed the ass in the barn.
8. Despite the challenges, he always managed to keep his chin up and not act like an ass.
9. The comedian poked fun at himself, calling his own mistakes a classic case of "ass behavior."
10. As we rode along, the trail was bumpy, making it hard to keep my seat on the ass.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ass>