ASSECURATION

Meaning: Assecuration refers to the act of ensuring or safeguarding interests, particularly in a legal or contractual context.

1. The lawyer emphasized the importance of assecuration in the contract negotiations.
2. Assecuration of the client’s interests was the primary focus of the legal team.
3. With proper assecuration, the risks associated with the investment were significantly minimized.
4. The company implemented a strict assecuration process to protect sensitive information.
5. During the meeting, the accountant explained the principles of assecuration to the stakeholders.
6. Assecuration measures were put in place to ensure compliance with industry regulations.
7. The project manager outlined a comprehensive strategy for assecuration of resources.
8. In the realm of finance, assecuration plays a crucial role in risk management.
9. The team conducted a thorough assessment to enhance their assecuration practices.
10. Effective assecuration can lead to greater trust between businesses and their clients.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/assecuration