

ASSENT

Meaning: Assent is the expression of agreement or approval, often formally given.

1. The committee reached a consensus and gave their formal assent to the proposal.
2. After much deliberation, she finally nodded her assent to the plan.
3. The teacher waited for the students' assent before moving on to the next topic.
4. His silence was taken as a sign of assent to the group's decision.
5. The board of directors gave their assent after reviewing the financial report.
6. With a simple thumbs up, he communicated his assent to the project.
7. The treaty was signed with both nations expressing their assent in unison.
8. She was pleased to receive his written assent, confirming their agreement.
9. The parents' assent was crucial for the school trip to take place.
10. They needed the landlord's assent before making any changes to the property.
11. The committee reached a unanimous assent on the proposed changes.
12. Her nod of assent indicated her agreement with the plan.
13. After much debate, they finally gave their assent to the new policy.
14. The teacher sought the students' assent before proceeding with the field trip.
15. His silence was taken as an assent to the idea presented.
16. The treaty was signed with the assent of all participating nations.
17. She smiled in assent, pleased with the decision that had been made.
18. The board voted to give their assent, allowing the project to move forward.
19. The child's look of understanding was a clear sign of assent.
20. They awaited the manager's assent before finalizing the contract.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/assent>