

ASSENTATION

Meaning: Assentation refers to the expression of agreement or approval, especially in a formal context.

1. The committee's assentation to the proposed changes was met with widespread approval.
2. In her speech, she emphasized the importance of assentation in group decision-making.
3. The board's unanimous assentation indicated a strong consensus on the new policy.
4. His quick assentation to the plan surprised many, given his usual skepticism.
5. The lack of assentation from key stakeholders raised concerns about the project's viability.
6. Assentation is often seen as a necessary step in the negotiation process.
7. She felt that the group's assentation was essential for moving forward with the initiative.
8. The document required formal assentation before any actions could be taken.
9. The CEO's assentation to the merger signaled a significant shift in company strategy.
10. Without assentation, the proposal would remain indefinitely in limbo.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/assentation>