

ASSENTATORY

Meaning: Assentatory: expressing agreement or approval.

1. The committee reached an assentatory agreement after extensive discussions.
2. Her assentatory nod signaled that she was in full support of the proposal.
3. In an assentatory manner, the board members approved the new policy unanimously.
4. His assentatory response made it clear that he endorsed the project's objectives.
5. The meeting concluded with an assentatory resolution that pleased all parties involved.
6. She expressed her assentatory feelings about the new initiative during the debate.
7. The assentatory votes helped solidify the decision to move forward with the merger.
8. After much deliberation, the council provided an assentatory statement on the issue.
9. His assentatory remarks were well-received, fostering a collaborative atmosphere.
10. The assentatory tone of the discussions indicated a strong agreement among stakeholders.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/assentatory>