

ASSENTIVE

Meaning: Assentive (adjective): expressing agreement or approval.

1. The assentive nods from the audience indicated their agreement with the speaker's points.
2. Children often exhibit assentive behaviors when they want to please their parents.
3. His assentive tone during the discussion encouraged others to share their thoughts.
4. The committee reached an assentive consensus on the proposed changes to the policy.
5. She presented an assentive argument that swayed the jury in her favor.
6. The manager appreciated the assentive feedback from the team regarding the new project.
7. Her assentive nature made her a favorite among her peers in the classroom.
8. The debate ended with several assentive voices agreeing on the importance of compromise.
9. His assentive gestures reinforced the positive atmosphere in the meeting.
10. The team was looking for assentive responses to their innovative ideas during the brainstorming session.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/assentive>