

ASSENTMENT

Meaning: Assentment: the expression of agreement or approval, often formalized in a decision-making context.

1. The committee reached a consensus after much debate, leading to a formal assentment.
2. His nod of assentment indicated that he agreed with the proposed changes.
3. The contract was signed only after all parties expressed their assentment.
4. She interpreted his silence as an assentment to the plan they had discussed.
5. The board sought the assentment of the shareholders before proceeding with the merger.
6. Her enthusiastic assentment to the idea encouraged others to join in.
7. The diplomat sought assentment from both sides to ensure a peaceful resolution.
8. Without the assentment of the community, the project would likely face significant opposition.
9. The professor emphasized the importance of obtaining assentment in academic collaborations.
10. Their shared assentment created a solid foundation for the partnership.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/assentment>