

ASSERT

Meaning: To assert means to state or declare something confidently and forcefully.

1. She decided to assert her opinion during the meeting.
2. The scientist aimed to assert the validity of his findings through rigorous testing.
3. In her speech, she asserted the importance of education in combating inequality.
4. He needed to assert his authority to maintain control over the project.
5. The lawyer will assert his client's innocence in court tomorrow.
6. They worked hard to assert their brand identity in a competitive market.
7. During the debate, she confidently asserted her stance on climate change.
8. It is crucial to assert your boundaries in any relationship.
9. The document was created to assert the company's commitment to sustainability.
10. He chose to assert his independence by moving out of his parents' house.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/assert>