

ASSERTER

Meaning: Asserter: a person who asserts or declares a belief, opinion, or fact with confidence.

1. The asserter confidently presented their argument during the debate.
2. As an asserter of truth, she always stood by her convictions.
3. In a room full of skeptics, he emerged as the primary asserter of the theory.
4. The asserter highlighted key evidence to support their claims.
5. With passion and clarity, the asserter made their point resonate with the audience.
6. As an asserter of human rights, she fought tirelessly for justice.
7. His role as an asserter allowed him to influence the committee's decisions.
8. The asserter's unwavering stance inspired others to speak out as well.
9. As an asserter in philosophical discussions, she often challenged established beliefs.
10. The asserter's bold declarations sparked a lively discussion among the attendees.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/asserter>