

ASSERTOR

Meaning: ASSERTOR: A person who asserts or declares a position, belief, or right, often with confidence and authority.

1. The assertor confidently presented his case in front of the jury.
2. As an assertor of human rights, she dedicated her life to advocating for the marginalized.
3. The assertor argued passionately during the debate, leaving little room for counterarguments.
4. In the meeting, he served as the assertor of the team's innovative ideas.
5. Her role as an assertor in the organization allowed her to influence important policy changes.
6. The assertor's claims were backed by extensive research and compelling evidence.
7. As an assertor in the courtroom, the attorney skillfully challenged the opposing side's narrative.
8. The assertor's unwavering stance on climate change sparked a lively discussion among the attendees.
9. In literature, the assertor often embodies the voice of reason amidst chaos.
10. The assertor's determination inspired others to speak up for their beliefs as well.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/assertor>