

ASSERTORIAL

Meaning: Assertorial: characterized by a confident and forceful declaration or assertion.

1. The attorney's assertorial style left no room for doubt about her client's innocence.
2. In his assertorial manner, he claimed that he had the right to speak first in the debate.
3. The assertorial nature of her argument convinced the jury to side with her.
4. His assertorial claims about the product's effectiveness were backed by extensive research.
5. During the meeting, her assertorial tone commanded the attention of everyone present.
6. The assertorial statements made by the witness were crucial to the case's outcome.
7. She approached the negotiation with an assertorial confidence that surprised everyone.
8. His assertorial approach to leadership often inspired his team to take bold actions.
9. The professor's assertorial lectures captivated students and sparked lively discussions.
10. In her assertorial critique, she highlighted several key flaws in the proposal.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/assertorial>