

ASSERTORY

Meaning: Assertory: characterized by a confident declaration or assertion, often implying a strong belief in the truth of the statement made.

1. The lawyer made an assertory claim that challenged the validity of the contract.
2. In his speech, he delivered an assertory statement that left no room for doubt.
3. The assertory nature of her remarks highlighted her confidence in the project's success.
4. He felt that his assertory tone was necessary to convey the urgency of the situation.
5. The assertory evidence presented during the trial swayed the jury's decision.
6. Her assertory stance on climate change sparked a heated debate among the panel.
7. The authors included assertory claims in their research to bolster their arguments.
8. His assertory demeanor made it clear that he was not open to negotiation.
9. The assertory language used in the report indicated a strong belief in the findings.
10. During the meeting, she made an assertory declaration that shifted the focus of the discussion.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/assertory>