

ASSESSABLE

Meaning: Assessable: capable of being evaluated or measured against specific criteria or standards.

1. The project's success was assessed using several assessable criteria.
2. In order to evaluate the effectiveness of the program, we must identify assessable outcomes.
3. The teacher provided students with assessable goals to guide their learning.
4. Only measurable and assessable data can be used for the final report.
5. The committee focused on assessable factors such as cost and time efficiency.
6. Her performance was judged on a series of assessable benchmarks.
7. The research findings included a list of assessable impacts on the community.
8. For the grant application, we need to present assessable indicators of progress.
9. The scientist outlined several assessable variables that could influence the results.
10. It's important to establish clear, assessable objectives at the beginning of any project.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/assessable>