

ASSEVERATION

Meaning: Asseveration is a solemn or emphatic declaration or statement of truth.

1. Her asseveration of honesty won her many friends in the community.
2. The scientist's asseveration that the results were conclusive prompted further investigation.
3. With unwavering confidence, he made an asseveration about the future of the project.
4. The lawyer's asseveration in court was met with skepticism from the jury.
5. She offered an asseveration of her innocence, despite the overwhelming evidence against her.
6. His asseveration that he had never seen the document surprised everyone in the meeting.
7. The politician's asseveration was intended to calm fears about the economic downturn.
8. After much deliberation, her asseveration of the truth finally convinced her critics.
9. The teacher's asseveration that all students could succeed inspired many to strive harder.
10. During the debate, his asseveration was powerful enough to sway public opinion.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/asseveration>