

ASSIGNABLE

Meaning: ASSIGNABLE: Capable of being transferred or allocated to another party or individual.

1. The rights to the patent are fully assignable to another party.
2. In the contract, it was stated that the lease is assignable only with the landlord's consent.
3. Employees were informed that their benefits were not assignable to family members.
4. The assignable nature of the contract made it easier for the company to restructure its obligations.
5. Before signing, she wanted to ensure that the shares were assignable to her heirs.
6. The loan agreement included a clause that made it assignable to a third party.
7. They found out that the assignment of the project was not permissible under current regulations.
8. The assignable assets were listed in detail to expedite the transfer process.
9. Understanding which rights are assignable is crucial in any negotiation.
10. The software license was explicitly noted as non-assignable in the terms of service.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/assignable>