

ASSIGNATION

Meaning: Assignment: a secret meeting or appointment, typically between lovers.

1. The secret assignment between the two lovers was planned for midnight.
2. She received a mysterious letter detailing the assignment at the old oak tree.
3. His assignment with her was the highlight of his otherwise dull week.
4. The assignment was supposed to be discreet, but rumors began to circulate.
5. They chose a secluded spot for their assignment, hidden from prying eyes.
6. During the assignment, they shared their dreams and fears under the stars.
7. The tension during their assignment was palpable, charged with unspoken feelings.
8. After a lengthy assignment, they decided it was time to confront their true emotions.
9. The assignment was marked by a sense of urgency, as time was running out.
10. She felt a mix of excitement and anxiety leading up to the assignment.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/assignment>