

ASSOBER

Meaning: Assober: (verb) to become sober or regain clarity of mind, especially after a period of intoxication or distraction.

1. The doctor advised him to assober after the wild party.
2. She took a moment to assober before responding to the email.
3. The team worked hard to assober the situation before the meeting.
4. He needed to assober his thoughts before making a decision.
5. To assober from the chaos, she spent the weekend in nature.
6. They decided to assober their plans after receiving new information.
7. It was important to assober their goals for the upcoming project.
8. He found it difficult to assober his emotions during the discussion.
9. The counselor encouraged him to assober his feelings about the breakup.
10. After a long night, they needed time to assober and regroup.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/assober>