

ASSOCIATOR

Meaning: Associator: a person who connects or links ideas, people, or groups to facilitate collaboration or understanding.

1. The associator in the research team helped connect various ideas into a cohesive project.
2. As an associator, her role was to link different departments for better collaboration.
3. The software serves as an associator, merging data from multiple sources into one report.
4. He was known as a skilled associator, often bringing together experts from various fields.
5. Their associator played a crucial role in enhancing communication between stakeholders.
6. In psychology, an associator may explore how memories connect to shape our experiences.
7. The marketing team relied on the associator to generate creative strategies for their campaign.
8. As an associator of concepts, he excelled in brainstorming sessions, bringing fresh perspectives.
9. The associator's insights led to innovative solutions that transformed the company's approach.
10. In a meeting of thinkers, the associator sparked discussions that bridged gaps in understanding.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/associator>