

ASSUASIVE

Meaning: Assuasive: having a soothing or calming effect, often used to alleviate anxiety or tension.

1. The therapist spoke in an assuasive tone that immediately calmed her anxious client.
2. His assuasive words helped to ease the tension in the room after the heated argument.
3. She wrote an assuasive letter to her friend, reassuring her that everything would be okay.
4. The mother's assuasive embrace comforted her child during the storm.
5. With his assuasive demeanor, the teacher was able to diffuse the students' fears about the upcoming exam.
6. The guide's assuasive remarks made the tourists feel safe as they navigated through the dense forest.
7. In the face of uncertainty, her assuasive presence provided a sense of stability to the team.
8. The politician's assuasive speech aimed to restore public confidence in the government.
9. He offered assuasive advice to his friend, reminding him that challenges are part of life.
10. Her assuasive smile was enough to lift the spirits of everyone around her.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/assuasive>