

ASSURED

Meaning: Assured (verb): to state with confidence or certainty to someone, often to remove doubts or fears.

1. She assured him that everything would be fine.
2. The teacher assured the students that their hard work would pay off.
3. I felt assured by her calm demeanor during the crisis.
4. He assured us that the project would be completed on time.
5. The doctor assured her that the procedure was safe and straightforward.
6. With a reassuring smile, she assured him that he could count on her support.
7. They assured me that the event would be enjoyable and well-organized.
8. He spoke in an assured tone, instilling confidence in his audience.
9. The parents assured their children that they were always there for them.
10. She was assured of her success after receiving positive feedback.
11. She was assured of her success after receiving positive feedback from the judges.
12. The doctor assured him that the procedure was safe and straightforward.
13. With a confident smile, she assured her team that they would meet the deadline.
14. He felt assured of his decision after consulting with several experts.
15. The coach assured the players that their hard work would pay off in the championship.
16. They assured the clients that their concerns would be addressed promptly.
17. Despite the storm, she assured her children that everything would be alright.
18. The company assured its customers that their data would be protected at all costs.
19. He assured her that he would always be there to support her dreams.
20. The teacher assured the students that they could ask questions anytime.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/assured>