

ASTIPULATION

Meaning: A stipulation is a specific condition or requirement outlined in an agreement or contract.

1. The contract included a stipulation that required all parties to meet quarterly.
2. Her acceptance of the offer came with the stipulation that she would retain creative control.
3. The teacher emphasized the stipulation that all assignments must be submitted on time.
4. A stipulation in the agreement outlined the penalties for late payments.
5. He signed the document, fully aware of the stipulation regarding confidentiality.
6. The loan had a stipulation that prohibited the borrower from taking on additional debt.
7. We need to clarify the stipulation concerning the use of shared resources.
8. The athlete agreed to participate under the stipulation that he would be compensated fairly.
9. Their partnership was solidified by a stipulation ensuring equal profit sharing.
10. The event was scheduled with the stipulation that all attendees must wear masks.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/astipulation>