

ASTIR

Meaning: Astir: in a state of excitement, activity, or movement.

1. The city was astir with excitement as the festival approached.
2. Birds were astir in the early morning, filling the air with their songs.
3. Rumors of a new product launch had the tech world astir with anticipation.
4. As the sun rose, the sleepy town became astir with the hustle of daily life.
5. The announcement left the community astir, sparking discussions in every corner.
6. Children were astir in the playground, their laughter echoing through the park.
7. With the election nearing, political debates had the entire nation astir.
8. The arrival of the dignitaries had the hotel staff astir with preparations.
9. News of the unexpected merger left the business sector astir with speculation.
10. After the shocking revelation, the room was astir with whispers and gasps.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/astir>