ASTONISH

Meaning: To astonish means to surprise or impress someone greatly.

1. The magician's final trick managed to astonish everyone in the audience.
2. Her ability to solve complex problems quickly never failed to astonish her colleagues.
3. The breathtaking view from the mountaintop astonished all the hikers.
4. He was astonished to discover that he had won the prestigious award.
5. The intricate details of the painting astonished art critics around the world.
6. It astonished me how easily she adapted to the new environment.
7. The child’s vivid imagination can astonish adults in ways they often forget.
8. Learning about different cultures always astonishes him, making him eager for more.
9. The sudden change in weather astonished the meteorologists who had predicted sunshine.
10. Witnessing the kindness of strangers can astonish even the most jaded hearts.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/astonish