

ASTONISHED

Meaning: Astonished means experiencing a strong feeling of surprise or amazement.

1. She was astonished to find out she had won the grand prize.
2. The audience was astonished by the magician's incredible tricks.
3. He stood there, astonished, unable to believe what he was seeing.
4. I was astonished at the beauty of the sunset over the mountains.
5. They were astonished when the quiet girl delivered a powerful speech.
6. The scientist was astonished by the unexpected results of the experiment.
7. She looked at the painting, astonished by the artist's skill and creativity.
8. He felt astonished by the generosity of strangers during his time of need.
9. We were all astonished when the underdog team won the championship.
10. Her astonishing talent for music left everyone in the room speechless.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/astonished>