

ASTONY

Meaning: Astonishment or shock, often characterized by an inability to react or respond due to surprise.

1. The sudden announcement of her resignation left everyone in the office astony.
2. He stood in astony as the magician performed impossible feats right before his eyes.
3. Her ability to solve complex problems with ease was a source of astony for her colleagues.
4. The breathtaking view from the mountain summit left him in astony.
5. Witnessing the rare celestial event filled the crowd with a sense of astony.
6. She looked at the painting in astony, captivated by its intricate details.
7. The unexpected turn of events rendered him in complete astony and disbelief.
8. The child's incredible talent for playing the piano filled the room with astony.
9. The news of their unexpected victory left the fans in astony and joy.
10. They watched in astony as the fireworks lit up the night sky in vibrant colors.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/astony>