

ASTOOP

Meaning: Astoop: in a bent or stooped position; leaning forward or downward.

1. The ancient statue stood astoop, its weathered face gazing towards the horizon.
2. He found himself astoop in contemplation, pondering the decisions that led him there.
3. As the sun set, the trees appeared astoop, casting long shadows across the ground.
4. The cat sat astoop on the windowsill, watching the world pass by outside.
5. In her old age, she often walked astoop, reminiscing about her vibrant youth.
6. The gardener bent astoop to examine the delicate flowers blooming in the soil.
7. With the weight of the world on his shoulders, he felt astoop as he trudged home.
8. The old man sat astoop on the bench, sharing stories with the children at the park.
9. During the ceremony, the flag hung astoop, a symbol of the nation's mourning.
10. The hiker paused astoop, marveling at the breathtaking view from the mountain summit.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/astoop>