

ASTOUNDMENT

Meaning: Astoundment is a state of great surprise or amazement.

1. The crowd erupted in astoundment as the magician performed his final trick.
2. She gazed at the painting in astoundment, unable to believe the talent of the artist.
3. His astoundment was palpable when he received the unexpected news of his promotion.
4. The child's face was a picture of astoundment when he saw the fireworks light up the sky.
5. In a moment of astoundment, she realized the truth behind the mystery.
6. Their astoundment grew as they watched the rare species of bird land just inches away.
7. The audience sat in astoundment, captivated by the breathtaking performance.
8. With each new discovery, his astoundment deepened, leaving him eager for more knowledge.
9. She could hardly contain her astoundment upon learning she had won the grand prize.
10. The scientist's astoundment was evident when the experiment yielded results beyond expectations.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/astoundment>