

ASTRICTIVE

Meaning: Astrictive: having a constraining or restrictive effect, limiting freedom or expression.

1. The astrictive nature of the new regulations has caused significant concern among local businesses.
2. Her astrictive approach to parenting left little room for her children to express their individuality.
3. The committee implemented astrictive measures to ensure compliance with safety standards.
4. Despite the astrictive guidelines, the team managed to innovate within the given framework.
5. His astrictive tone during the meeting discouraged open dialogue and creativity.
6. The astrictive policies of the organization often stifled the employees' motivation and enthusiasm.
7. In some cultures, astrictive traditions dictate the roles of men and women in society.
8. The astrictive contract terms made it difficult for the small startup to thrive.
9. Many students felt that the astrictive rules at school hindered their ability to learn and grow.
10. The astrictive nature of her diet left her feeling deprived and unsatisfied.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/astRICTIVE>