

ASTRINGENT

Meaning: Astringent refers to a substance that causes the contraction of body tissues, often producing a dry or puckering sensation, or having a sharp, biting taste.

1. The astringent taste of the unripe fruit made her pucker her lips.
2. He applied an astringent lotion to his skin to reduce the oiliness.
3. The wine had an astringent quality that complemented the meal perfectly.
4. After using the astringent mouthwash, she felt her gums tighten.
5. The herbal remedy was known for its astringent properties, helping to heal wounds.
6. His remarks were so astringent that they left the audience in stunned silence.
7. The astringent effect of the tea helped soothe her upset stomach.
8. In traditional medicine, astringent herbs are often used to treat digestive issues.
9. The astringent nature of the new facial cleanser left her skin feeling refreshed.
10. She enjoyed the astringent notes in the dark chocolate, which balanced the sweetness.
11. The astringent taste of the unripe fruit made her wince.
12. After the procedure, the doctor recommended an astringent mouthwash to reduce inflammation.
13. Her astringent remarks during the meeting left many feeling uncomfortable.
14. He preferred astringent tea that would wake him up and clear his mind.
15. The astringent properties of the herbal remedy helped soothe her irritated skin.
16. As the sun set, the air turned cool and astringent, signaling the end of summer.
17. The critic's astringent review harshly dissected the novel's flaws.
18. She applied an astringent lotion to tighten her pores after cleansing her face.
19. His astringent demeanor often masked his underlying kindness and warmth.
20. The astringent scent of vinegar filled the kitchen as she prepared the salad dressing.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/astringent>