

ASTRINGER

Meaning: Astringer: a person who adjusts the tension of strings on musical instruments, particularly stringed instruments like violins, to ensure optimal sound quality.

1. The astringer carefully adjusted the tension of the strings on the violin.
2. In her research, she discovered that the astringer played a critical role in the production of high-quality instruments.
3. He was known as the best astringer in town, often sought after by professional musicians.
4. The delicate work of an astringer requires both skill and a keen ear for sound.
5. As the astringer tightened the wires, the melody began to take shape.
6. She learned the art of being an astringer from her grandfather, who had been a craftsman for decades.
7. The astringer selected the finest materials to ensure the durability of the strings.
8. In orchestras, the role of the astringer is often overlooked but is essential for harmony.
9. With each adjustment, the astringer brought the instrument closer to perfection.
10. The workshop buzzed with activity as the astringer prepared for the concert season.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/astringer>