

ASTRUT

Meaning: ASTRUT (adverb): standing with a proud or confident posture, often with legs spread apart.

1. She stood astrut in the doorway, her confidence radiating through the room.
2. The horse was astrut in the paddock, proudly displaying its impressive stature.
3. He walked astrut across the stage, commanding the audience's attention effortlessly.
4. With her chin held high, she remained astrut, unbothered by the criticism.
5. The statue was astrut, capturing the essence of strength and grace in its design.
6. They posed astrut for the photograph, exuding an air of elegance and poise.
7. As the keynote speaker began, she felt astrut, ready to share her insights.
8. The peacock strutted astrut, showcasing its vibrant feathers in the sunlight.
9. In the midst of the chaos, he remained astrut, a pillar of strength for everyone around him.
10. The model walked astrut down the runway, leaving a lasting impression on the audience.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/astrut>