

ASTUN

Meaning: Astun: (adjective) astonished or shocked, often due to unexpected or surprising circumstances.

1. The discovery of the ancient artifact left archaeologists astun, questioning their previous theories.
2. As the unexpected results came in, the researchers were astun by the implications for their study.
3. She stood astun, unable to believe the news that had just been delivered to her.
4. The breathtaking view from the mountaintop left all the hikers astun with awe.
5. When the magician performed his final trick, the audience was left astun and speechless.
6. His sudden change in behavior was enough to astun even his closest friends.
7. The complexity of the painting left the art critics astun, with varying interpretations emerging.
8. The rare astronomical event had stargazers across the city astun and captivated.
9. Upon hearing the unexpected announcement, the crowd was astun, murmurs rippling through them.
10. The athlete's record-breaking performance was so extraordinary that it astun everyone present.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/astun>