

ASWAIL

Meaning: Aswail means to be overwhelmed or engulfed by grief or sorrow.

1. The villagers were aswail with grief after the tragic news.
2. Aswail in sorrow, she gazed out at the stormy sea, lost in her thoughts.
3. The sound of the mournful bell echoed through the town, leaving everyone aswail.
4. After the devastating accident, the community was aswail for weeks.
5. He felt aswail as he walked through the empty halls of his childhood home.
6. Aswail with regret, she wished she had made different choices in life.
7. The artist captured the essence of despair in his painting, leaving viewers aswail.
8. Aswail, they gathered for the memorial, sharing stories and tears alike.
9. The haunting melody of the song left the audience aswail, touched by its depth.
10. In the wake of the disaster, hope seemed distant as the people remained aswail.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/aswail>