

ATAVIC

Meaning: Atavic refers to instincts, traits, or themes that are primitive, ancestral, or reminiscent of earlier stages of evolution or cultural development.

1. The atavic instincts of the animals in the wild often dictate their behavior.
2. In her art, she explored atavic themes that connected modern life with ancient traditions.
3. His atavic fear of the dark would often resurface during stormy nights.
4. The atavic nature of the festival celebrated the cycles of life and death.
5. Many cultures have atavic legends that explain the mysteries of the natural world.
6. The atavic traits of the tribe were evident in their rituals and daily practices.
7. She felt an atavic pull towards the mountains, as if they called to her ancestors.
8. The atavic designs on the pottery reflected a deep connection to their heritage.
9. His atavic response to danger had saved him more than once in the wilderness.
10. Even in urban settings, humans exhibit atavic behaviors rooted in our primal past.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/atavic>