

ATHINK

Meaning: ATHINK (verb): To engage in deep reflection or contemplation about one's beliefs or decisions.

1. ATHINK is a term that encourages deeper reflection on one's beliefs.
2. When faced with a tough decision, it's important to ATHINK before taking action.
3. She often tells her students to ATHINK critically about the information they consume.
4. In moments of uncertainty, it's wise to ATHINK about the consequences of your choices.
5. The workshop focused on teaching participants how to ATHINK outside the box.
6. To truly innovate, one must first learn to ATHINK creatively.
7. He encouraged her to ATHINK about her goals and what steps she needed to achieve them.
8. The philosopher's lecture prompted everyone to ATHINK about morality and ethics.
9. In a world filled with distractions, it's essential to take time to ATHINK.
10. ATHINKing allows us to challenge our assumptions and grow intellectually.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/athink>