

ATHIRST

Meaning: Athirst means having a strong desire or craving for drink, particularly water.

1. The hikers were athirst after a long day on the trail.
2. In the desert sun, the travelers felt increasingly athirst.
3. She realized she was athirst and needed to find water soon.
4. The dog barked at the fountain, clearly athirst and eager to drink.
5. His athirst throat begged for the refreshing taste of cold lemonade.
6. After hours of playing soccer, the children were athirst for a cool drink.
7. The parched landscape made everyone feel athirst as they walked through it.
8. Athirst and exhausted, he collapsed under the shade of a tree.
9. The athletes were athirst after completing the grueling marathon.
10. With no water in sight, they became more athirst by the minute.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/athirst>