

ATONEMENT

Meaning: Atonement is the act of making amends or reparation for wrongdoing or past mistakes.

1. Atonement for past mistakes can often be a long and challenging process.
2. The characters in the novel seek atonement for their wrongdoings throughout the story.
3. She believed that true atonement required not just remorse but also meaningful action.
4. His journey toward atonement was marked by self-reflection and personal growth.
5. Atonement can sometimes feel like an uphill battle, but it is essential for healing.
6. The concept of atonement is deeply rooted in many religious and philosophical traditions.
7. After years of guilt, he finally found a way to achieve atonement for his actions.
8. The film explores themes of love and atonement against a backdrop of war.
9. In her quest for atonement, she volunteered at the local shelter to give back to the community.
10. Atonement is not only about seeking forgiveness from others but also forgiving oneself.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/atonement>