

ATROCIOUS

Meaning: Atrocious means extremely bad or unpleasant; horrifyingly poor in quality or character.

1. The conditions in the refugee camp were absolutely atrocious.
2. His behavior during the meeting was nothing short of atrocious.
3. The food served at the event was atrocious, leaving many guests dissatisfied.
4. She found the movie's portrayal of history to be atrocious and misleading.
5. The service at the restaurant was atrocious, leading to numerous complaints.
6. It was an atrocious mistake that cost the company thousands of dollars.
7. The weather during our vacation was atrocious, ruining our plans for outdoor activities.
8. Many critics described the book as having an atrocious plot and poorly developed characters.
9. The team's performance in the championship game was considered atrocious by fans.
10. Living conditions in the slum were atrocious, highlighting the need for reform.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/atrocious>