ATROUS

Meaning: Atrocious: extremely bad or unpleasant; shockingly poor in quality or behavior.

1. The project faced an atrocious setback due to unforeseen circumstances.
2. Her behavior was so atrocious that it shocked everyone at the party.
3. The conditions in the overcrowded shelter were nothing short of atrocious.
4. He made an atrocious mistake that cost the team the game.
5. The film received criticism for its atrocious dialogue and poor acting.
6. Witnesses described the scene as an atrocious display of violence.
7. The food at the restaurant was atrocious, leaving many diners dissatisfied.
8. It was an atrocious act of vandalism that left the community outraged.
9. The weather was atrocious, with heavy rain and strong winds disrupting travel plans.
10. Despite its atrocious reputation, the book surprisingly gained a cult following.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/atrous