

ATTACKABLE

Meaning: Attackable: capable of being attacked or targeted, particularly in a military or strategic context.

1. The fortress was built to withstand any attackable threats from rival kingdoms.
2. In the game, players must identify the attackable units before launching their strategy.
3. The researchers focused on the virus's attackable vulnerabilities to develop a vaccine.
4. He realized that his argument was more attackable than he had initially believed.
5. During the debate, her stance became increasingly attackable as new evidence emerged.
6. The software update fixed several attackable flaws that had been exploited by hackers.
7. It's crucial to avoid making your position too attackable in negotiations.
8. The old bridge was left in an attackable state, inviting criticism from the community.
9. The security team highlighted the attackable points in their latest assessment report.
10. In a competitive market, any product can become attackable if not properly marketed.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/attackable>